Dear Ray:

We are writing to send a very sincere 'thank you' for The Miracle Providers' continued support and donation of gifts to our client families and children during the Winter holiday season. Your generosity enhanced the lives of our clients immensely this year in a time where many of them didn't have any other resources. The outpouring of gifts year after year has been truly a blessing for our agency. A few of our clients reported that the gifts they receive from Miracle Providers would be the only ones they were able to give for Christmas.

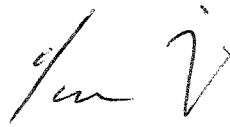

On behalf of the entire Client Services Department, we are truly grateful for your donations and would like to assure you that the Miracle Providers kindness did not go unnoticed by our agency! We appreciate your effort in reaching out to AIDS Response Seacoast year after year. It was a pleasure working with you and we look forward to working with you again next year.

Again, thank you and we hope 2015 finds you and your colleagues happy and healthy.

Sincerely,

Richard B. Wagner
